

The Home Country of Martin Luther (1483-1546)

The map shows the following regions and cities:

- BRANDENBURG (top right)
- SAXONY-ANHALT (top center)
- LOWER-SAXONY (left)
- SAXONY (right)
- THURINGIA (bottom center)
- BAVARIA (bottom)

Key locations and features:

- Berlin: Highlighted in red.
- Potsdam: Located near Berlin.
- Magdeburg: Located in Saxony-Anhalt.
- Brunswik: Located in Lower-Saxony.
- Harz: A mountain range in Saxony-Anhalt.
- In Mansfeld: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.
- In Wittenberg: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.
- In Eisleben: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.
- Halle: A black dot with a name label.
- Leipzig: A black dot with a name label.
- In Erfurt: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.
- In Eisenach on: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.
- Schmalkalden: A red dot with a name label and two blank lines for notes.

Images and illustrations:

- A photograph of a large white building with a red roof in Magdeburg.
- A historical painting of a city (Wittenberg) from 1536/37.
- A bronze statue of Martin Luther in Wittenberg with the inscription "HINAUS IN DIE WELT".
- A photograph of a stone archway in Eisleben.
- A photograph of a half-timbered building in Eisenach.
- A photograph of a half-timbered interior in Schmalkalden.
- A photograph of a town square in Thuringia.

Watermark: www.worksheets.de

Name: _____ Date: _____ Cl.: _____ Subject: _____